

AIBI.GLOBAL PARTNER PROGRAM GUIDE

Welcome to the AIBI.Global Partnership Program

This guide outlines the framework for our collaboration, ensuring transparency in how our programs work, how to become our partner, how to work with each of our products, and how much you'll be able to earn from each product.

ABOUT AIBI.GLOBAL

AIBI.Global is a fintech company that provides AI-powered data analytics solutions for prop firms and brokers that brings risk, sales, and management insights into one unified system, effectively replacing 3–5 different tools with a single platform. Using our proprietary AI models trained on real trading behavior, we provide the data you need to optimize trade flow management and increase profits while keeping risk under control.

CHALLENGES BROKERS AND PROP FIRMS FACE

Brokers and prop firms face various challenges. Poor decision-making and errors increase risk thus hindering growth and causing capital loss.

Common challenges:

Money lose due to toxic traders and latency arbitrage

Uncontrolled exposure leading to unexpected losses

High-value clients leave before teams can react

Missed revenue due to lack of client insights

Decisions are made too late to make an impact

No clear visibility over business performance

HOW WE SOLVE THEM

AIBI.Global provides AI powered, all-in-one data analytics platforms that give brokers and prop firms full visibility and control over their business performance so they may know exactly where they're losing money, where they can grow, and how to act on it.

We solve the challenges mentioned above by:

Enabling faster, data-driven decisions

Identifying at-risk clients before they are lost

Providing real-time visibility over exposure and risk

Unifying trading, sales, and risk data in one system

Detecting toxic trading early with advanced analytics

Delivering actionable signals for sales and retention teams

AFFILIATE PROGRAM

We built our affiliate program to team up with industry professionals and businesses to reach out to brokers and prop firms and help them grow and thrive.

This program is perfect for those who work closely with brokers and prop firms and are looking for a low-effort way to earn extra revenue.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

Refer qualified leads to us and get rewarded for it. If your referral becomes a paying client, you receive a reoccurring commission for as long as the client stays with us. There's no limit on how many clients you can bring.

PROGRAM TERMS & TRACKING

- Each affiliate will receive their own personal link. When your referred lead uses your link, we'll know about it and you'll get credit for them.
- Digital referrals are tracked via a cookie-based attribution window. The attribution period may vary depending on the product.
- Payouts are made monthly (NET-30) with USDT or through bank transfer.

Activity Note:

Payouts may be discontinued in case of inactivity, depending on the program terms. Please refer to the affiliate agreement for full details.

HOW TO BECOME OUR AFFILIATE

Step 1

Register as an affiliate on our website aibi.global/partnership.

Step 2

Receive your unique referral link and an affiliate marketing package.

Step 3

Start referring brokers and prop firms to us and earn recurring commission.

WHITE-LABEL PROGRAM

Our white-label program is designed for fintech providers working with brokers and prop firms who want to expand their offering without investing in building their own analytics infrastructure.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

Gain access to our white-label model platforms and offer our products as a standalone product or bundled together with your existing services using your own brand, logo, and brand colors, helping you increase the value of your offer and strengthen client relationships.

Set your own pricing and retain the margin generating high monthly recurring revenue per client. Scale your income as your client base grows.

We handle the technical side including setup, maintenance, and ongoing product development, so you can focus on growing your business.

PROGRAM TERMS & COLLABORATION

- Flexible collaboration structure tailored to your business model
- Full technical support and continuous product updates from our side
- Access to partner materials and product resources
- Opportunity to scale the solution together as your business grows

HOW TO GET STARTED

Step 1

Contact us at support@aibi.global to express your interest in the white-label program

Step 2

Discuss your business model and positioning with our team

Step 3

Start the platform setup and branding process

Step 3

Receive your white-label product and start offering it to your clients and generating revenue
